

THE WOLF AND THE CRANE

Once upon a time there lived a wolf. He lived in the forest. The [came/ wolf/ think] was the meanest creature in the [dents/ forest/ girls]. He ate all of the little creatures [that/ new/ sets] he could find. He would chase [clean/ them/ farm]. Then he would box them in [a/ to/ on] corner. The poor little animals were [glass/ table/ frozen] with fear. Then the wolf would [check/ books/ slowly] gobble them up. The animals did [not/ sets/ fire] stand a chance of getting away [bank/ from/ bed] the horrible wolf.

One day the [fork/ tips/ wolf] wanted to eat a little squirrel. [Try/ He/ Saw] chased the poor animal round and [ships/ snow/ round] in circles. Soon the poor thing [fell/ hot/ fat] on the ground. He could barely breathe. [The/ Ice/ Not] wolf slowly went toward the squirrel. [Put/ Do/ He] bent over the squirrel. He began [leg/ to/ can] eat the squirrel. After he finished [go/ cap/ he] licked his paws and lips. Then [sat/ he/ jar] felt something stick in his throat. [Bat/ It/ Was] must have been a bone. It [was/ and/ for] very sharp. The wolf was in [great/ clap/ nose] pain. He could hardly breathe.

He [little/ chairs/ walked] from animal to animal. He asked [what/ for/ does] help from each one of them. [I/ Man/ No] one would help the wolf. The [also/ wolf/ put] had just been too mean. [Home/ Sun/ They] did not care if the wolf [was/ us/ we] in pain.

The wolf cried and [howled/ truck/ eaten] and would soon die if he [baby/ did/ him] not get the bone out of [his/ wish/ fork] throat. Then he saw a crane. [A/ Go/ On] crane is a sea bird. He [that/ has/ been] a long, thin neck. The wolf [two/ cat/ ran] to the crane. " Oh, crane, please [man/ save/ lot] my life. I have a bone [go/ cat/ in] my throat. I cannot breathe. You [eat/ have/ just] a long, thin neck. Please reach [in/ not/ you] and pull out the bone. I [been/ will/ meet] give you anything that you want. [I/ Be/ At] promise!" said the wolf.

The crane [was/ how/ ate] worried. He did not want the [see/ let/ wolf] to play a trick on him. [Use/ What/ Fort] if the wolf was lying? If [bat/ the/ did] crane put his neck down the [spoon/ jumps/ throat] of the wolf, the wolf might [base/ tall/ eat] him. Then the wolf fell to [sat/ the/ was] ground. The crane saw that he [go/ was/ put] dying. "I will get it out," [chair/ toys/ said] the crane. He put his head [dogs/ cent/ down] the wolf's throat. He soon found [and/ the/ for] bone. He pulled it out. The [and/ car/ wolf] began to feel better. The crane [floor/ baths/ smiled]. "What will you give me in [plays/ return/ coats] for saving your life?" asked the [right/ crane/ lake]. "I will give you nothing," said [how/ not/ the] wolf. He laughed and ran off [low/ glove/ into] the forest. The crane knew that [hat/ the/ pot] next time the wolf needed help, [sit/ no/ be] one would give it to him.
